Scholarship Application

Closing Date: June 01, 2023

To be completed by applicant and school official

To the Applicant:

Since you will be judged upon the information you furnish in this application, give considerable thought to what information is being requested and to the substance of the data you will submit. Provide as much information about yourself as may be necessary to complete each section. Never assume that the review committee has met you prior to this process.

Additional pages of narrative or supporting documentation may be added to any section. This can include newspaper clippings, photos, letters of recommendation from persons with your school and/or community, and other materials that will give the Committee a better inside about you and your school and community activities. You are encouraged to submit copies rather than originals. Any materials you send will not be returned to you unless you specify what particular items you wish returned and provide an appropriate self-addressed, stamped envelope.

With the exception of section III, which must be in your own handwriting, you may type the remaining sections of the application. When using pen, be certain handwriting is legible.

The Review Committee must receive all completed applications by June 01, 2023.
